NOTE.

THIS pamphlet contains a revised list of all General Rules and Orders published under (A) Statutes and (B) General Acts, which the Legislative Department have, from time to time, found it possible to collect.

The list has been brought down to 30th June, 1916, but it does not pretend to be exhaustive. Omissions and inaccuracies in it will be corrected as they are brought to the notice of the Legislative Department.

The Rules and Orders referred to in Parts 2 and 3 of this list have been reproduced in extenso in the recently published Volumes of General Statutory Rules and Orders, and so far as these Rules and Orders up to the year 1913 are concerned, this list may now be regarded as a table of contents to that publication. Gazette references have been given in the list to the Rules and Orders issued since 1914.

A. L. BANERJEE,
Superintendent,
Legislative Department,
Government of India.

[1] Notifications affecting telegraph lines throughout British India are most numerous and are being constantly added to. They are hardly however of such general interest or application as to merit a place in a list of this nature and have therefore been omitted. But information will be found in the various lists of local rules and orders published by Local Governments regarding telegraphs in their respective Provinces.

[2] These notifications were issued under Act VIII of 1860 but are kept in force by Act XIII of 1885, s. 2.

[3] As to application of the rules to other Railways in India, see the Volumes of local Statutory Rules and Orders published by each Local Government.

[4] These notifications were issued under Act I of 1876 but are kept in force by Act XII of 1885, s. 2.
